::about our chef

Born and raised in rural southern Indiana, Chef Dean Sample grew up with a love of farming, often helping his grandparents tend their gardens and land. He spent his teen years helping his father and grandfather at The Farm Center and the local machine shop. After a hard day of work or play, the highlight was always his Grandmother's country cooking. Chef Dean found his love and passion for food through her, and developed a deep understanding of how the love and care of food can unite family and friends.
